To Mary Ann, Sharon, and Karen:
 Always remember all the parties, Sept.
 14, 1972, "Penalty for holding", getting ready for the prom, and driving
 John's Purple Challenger around the parking lot. It all adds up to this:
 Sometimes only memories seem real.

And now here is my secret, a very simple secret:
 It is only with the heart that one sees rightly;
 What is essential is invisible to the eye.
 Memories: Track meets, Tenny Mt., Spirit Week,

 Beach Boys, Soccer games, France, Hockey games,

Together, arm in arm — chanting, singing, we stand tall before a waiting world. We have been challenged, but remain prepared to take what life hands us. Wait — Can you hear it? — beating, pulsating — underneath their song. It's getting louder and stronger by the minute. It's the key to their power, their strength, their . . .

Spirit

EXPLODE

Spirit is not an emotion, exactly. It's more of a glow, a contagious enthusiasm that grows with numbers and comes to life in multitudes.

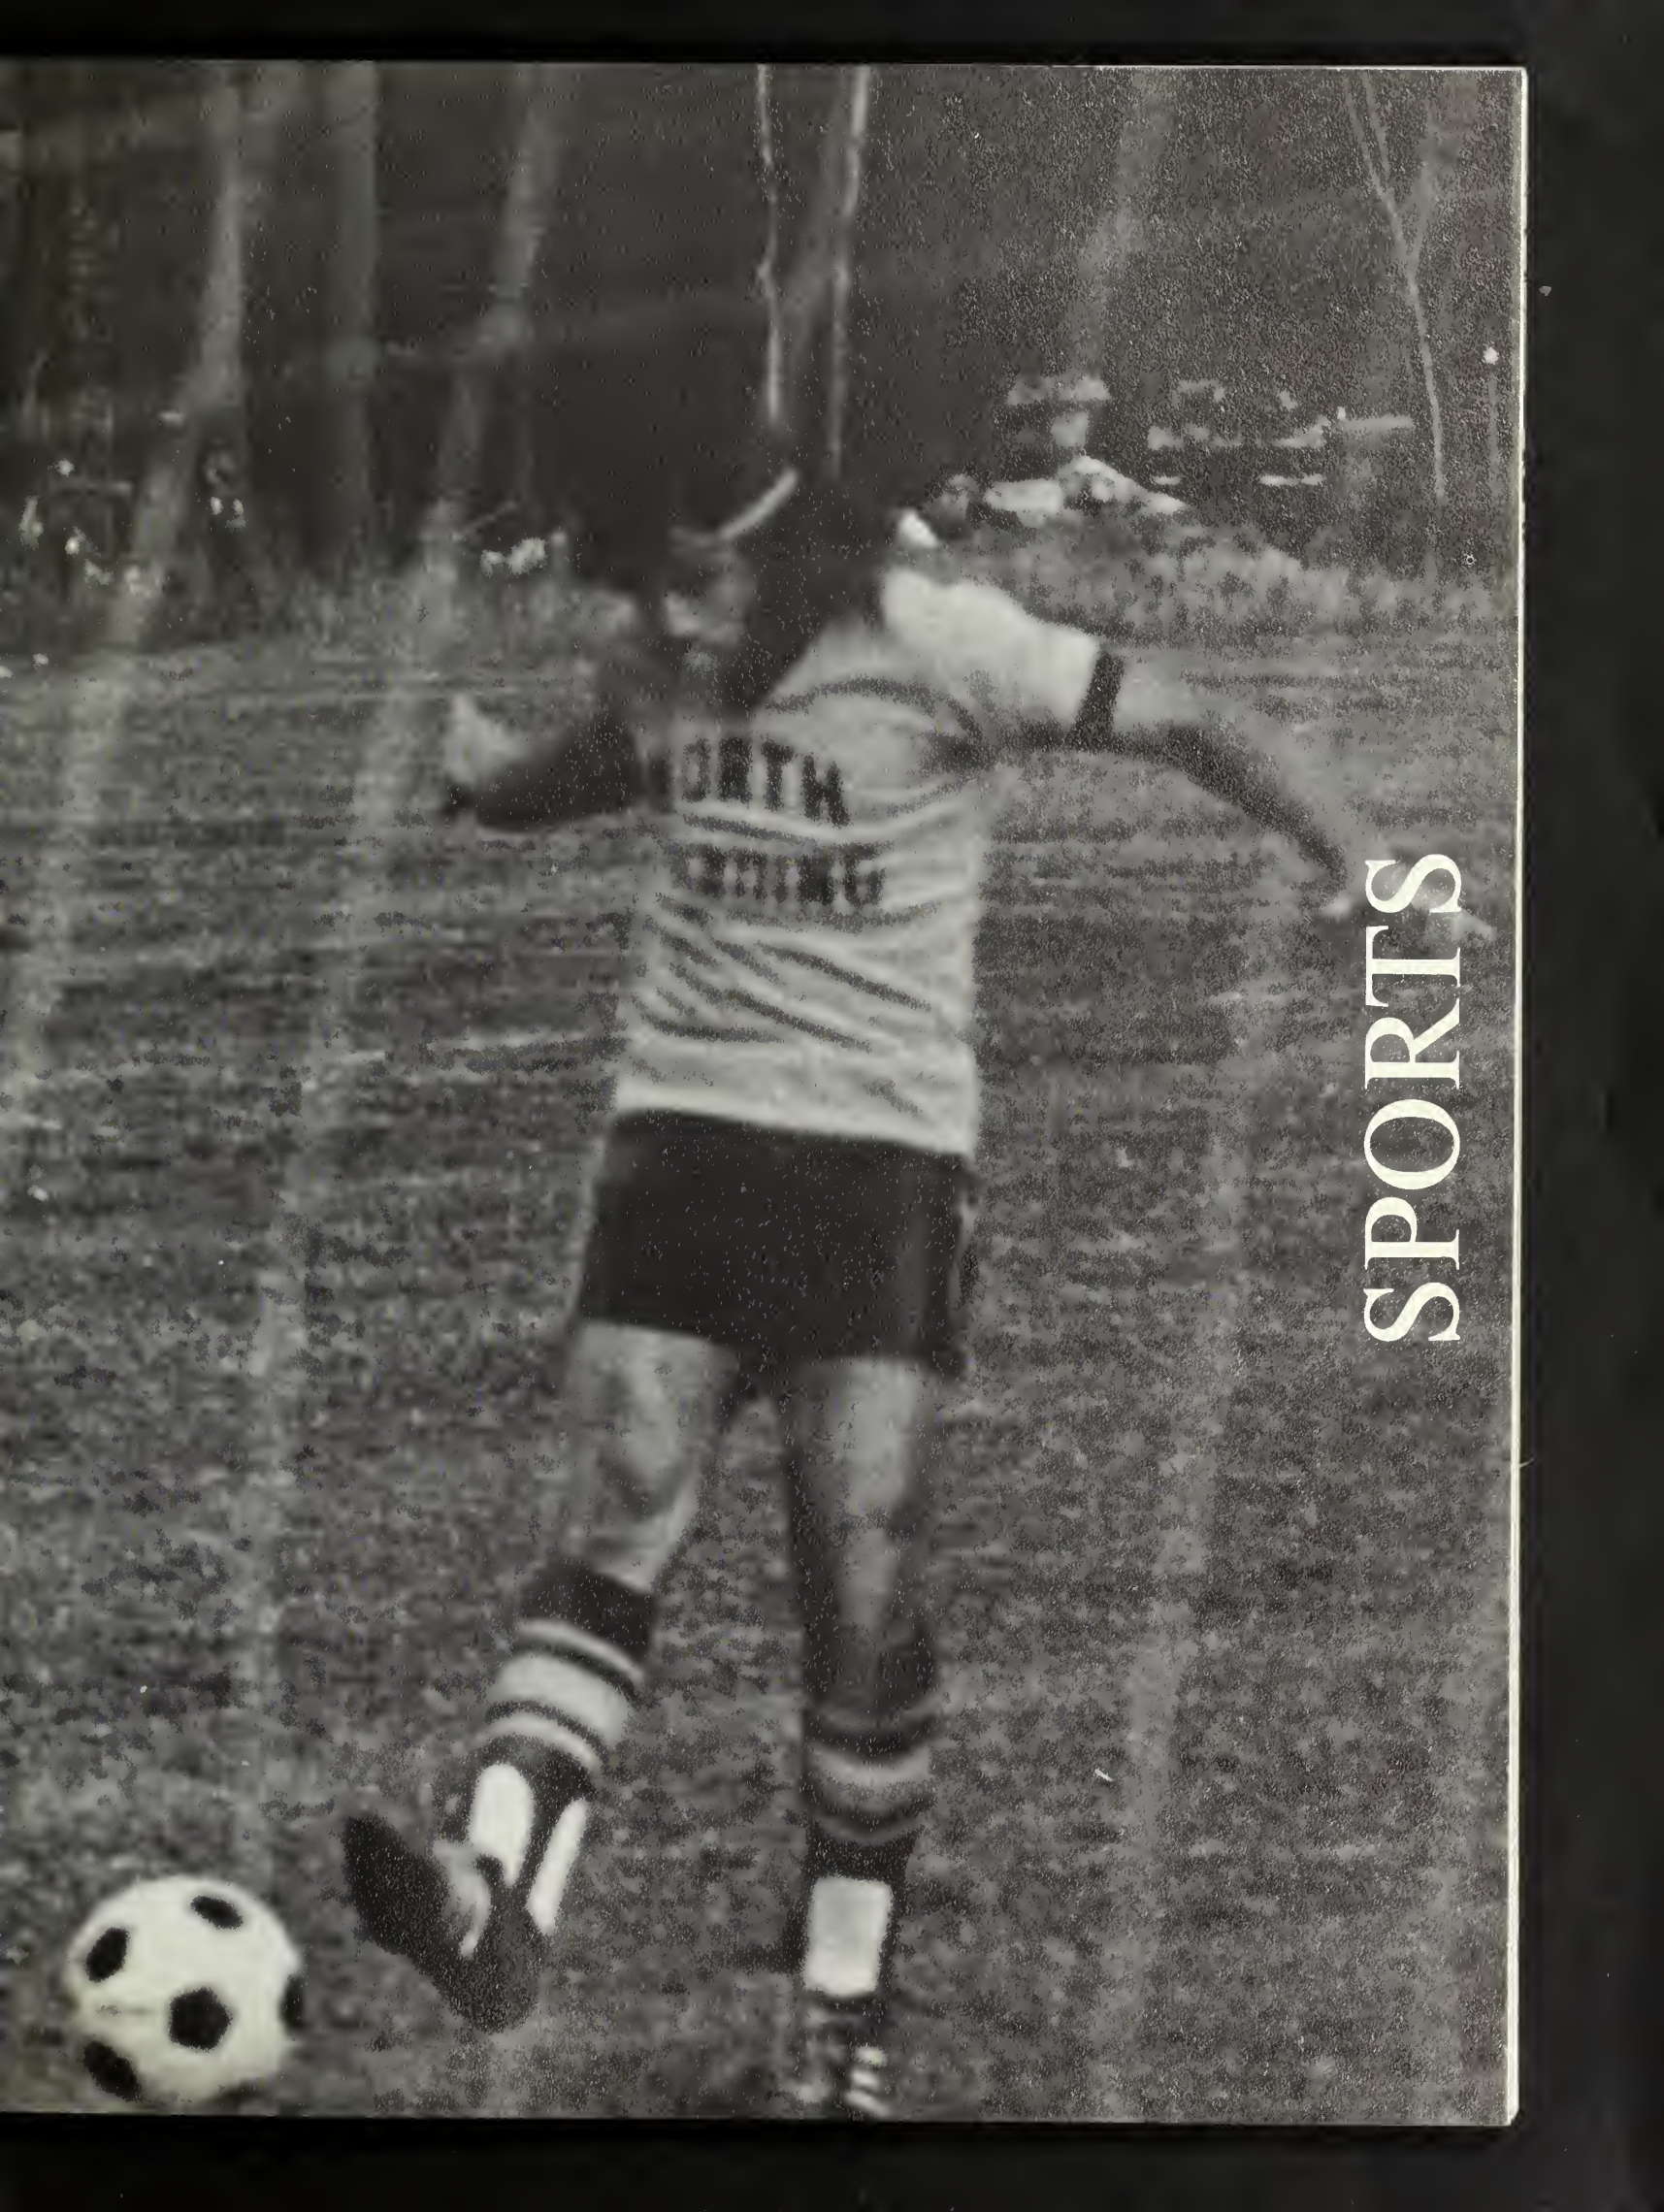

It's a pride that is so fierce and strong that you feel it must be shouted as loud and as strong as your lungs will allow.

Spirit is what makes you alive. It's a force that drives and motivates your deepest feelings. Spirit cannot be measured by the ounce or by the mile. Rather, it is measured by the steadfastness to a dream, to a faith in the world.

And most of all, spirit can never die; though we are absent our spirit is remembered. It is remembered by all we leave behind, by all those whose lives were touched by it. And because of it they will never be quite the same again.

*It was the epoch of belief,
It was the epoch of incredulity*

*It was the season of light,
It was the season of darkness*

*It was the spring of hope,
It was the winter of despair*

*We had everything before us,
We had nothing before us*

*We were all going direct to heaven,
We were all going direct the other way —*

In short, the period was so far like the present period that some of its noisiest authorities insisted on its being received, for good or for evil, in the superlative degree of comparison only.
